

Thousand Islands Decoy Collectors Association

Photos from the March 28, 2026 Spring Meeting

Tom Humberstone introducing Mark Malys at the start of the presentation.

Stevens Decoys of Weedsport New York

The Harvey and George Stevens Story

Presented by Mark Malys

NEW YORK STATE

TIDCA members socializing at the 2026 spring meeting.

Mark brought a selection of Stevens brothers decoys, photos, and reference materials to the spring meeting.

It was a wonderful opportunity to learn about these decoys; to examine and study them, and to discuss them with Mark and the other decoy enthusiasts attending.

1870-1880
C. J. ...

1870-1880
C. J. ...

1870-1880
C. J. ...

Harvey's First Workshop
Circa 1955

Hewell's First Workshop
1892

Not Handle the coys

Bluebill

George Stevens Drake Bluebill
Circa 1891-1905

Stevens Homestead
South Seneca St / R
Weedsport, NY
Circa 1950

© GRANITON PRINT WORKS COMPANY

In addition to the Stevens decoys, Harris and Ferguson decoys to be auctioned at the 2026 Clayton Decoy Show were displayed at the 2026 spring meeting.

Decoy Auction – Friday, July 17, 2026

Clayton Decoy & Wildlife Art Show

Cerow Recreation Park Arena, Clayton, NY

Ferguson long-tailed ducks

Ferguson loon

Harris wood duck

Featuring more than 80 lots of decoys, miniatures, lamps, and flyers by Ken Harris and Ferguson Decoys, including 17 pairs of different species by Ferguson Decoys. Most purchased directly from the makers by a northern New York collector.

Live auction only, starting at 3 PM. No buyer's premium.

For more information: www.timuseum.org

THE STEVENS BROTHERS

Clayton Decoy Auction - July 17, 2026

1. Drake wood duck by Ken Harris, Woodstock, NY. Distinguished decoy with detailed wing and tail feathers, head turned slightly to the right. Original paint to the right with a length of approx. 12 1/2 inches. Harris pricing, see 1987 Auctioned on the Internet. Estimated $400-500.

2. Duck decoy by Ken Harris, Woodstock, NY. Distinguished decoy with detailed wing and tail feathers, head turned slightly to the right. Original paint to the right with a length of approx. 12 1/2 inches. Harris pricing, see 1987 Auctioned on the Internet. Estimated $200-300.

3. Duck decoy by Ken Harris, Woodstock, NY. Distinguished decoy with detailed wing and tail feathers, head turned slightly to the right. Original paint to the right with a length of approx. 12 1/2 inches. Harris pricing, see 1987 Auctioned on the Internet. Estimated $200-300.

4. Duck decoy by Ken Harris, Woodstock, NY. Distinguished decoy with detailed wing and tail feathers, head turned slightly to the right. Original paint to the right with a length of approx. 12 1/2 inches. Harris pricing, see 1987 Auctioned on the Internet. Estimated $200-300.

Decoy Auction - Friday, July 17, 2026
Clayton Decoy & Wildlife Art Show
Cattaraugus Recreation Park, Getzville, Clayton, NY

Featuring more than 80 lots of decoys, miniatures, lamps, and different species by Ferguson Decoy, including 17 pairs of different species by Ferguson Decoy. Most purchased decoy from this makers by a northern New York collector. Live auction only, starting at 3 PM. No buyer's premium. For more information: www.fergusondecoy.com

1. Ferguson duck decoy
2. Ferguson duck decoy
3. Ferguson duck decoy

FRANK SING-FLORES • CLAYTON, NEW YORK, USA